RECIPES WITH PEPTAN® COLLAGEN PEPTIDES

With Peptan offering the health benefits consumers are looking for, we can help dairy manufacturers achieve new functional products. Functional dairy products are popular and convenient for consumers, who are looking for a healthy lifestyle. The combination of Peptan proven benefits with the key components of milk, like casein, whey proteins and calcium, offers dairy products which can be uniquely positioned and marketed for e.g. bone health and/or lean muscle mass. Beauty yoghurts are also an increasingly popular choice. Dairy products have a broad appeal across all ages in the active nutrition segment. The easy integration of Peptan into any formulation opens up new opportunities for healthy dairy products.

DAIRY DRINK

with Peptan® B, F or P

Added benefits from collagen on-the-go.

Dairy drink is a popular format for creating healthy, low fat, high protein beverages. Drinks are convenient for consumers on the go. Formulating dairy products with Peptan provides the added benefits of two protein sources, collagen peptides and milk proteins. Vitamin D and naturally occurring calcium complement the proteins action to maintain muscle mass.
