REACHING FURTHER TOGETHER

THROUGHOUT OUR ORGANIZATION, WE FOCUS ON WORKING CLOSELY WITH OUR CUSTOMERS TO REACH MORE TOGETHER.

At Rousselot, we collaborate with customers all over the world – creating world class products, manufactured through our state of the art operations with an unshakeable commitment to quality, safety and sustainability.

Together with our customers, we work locally in real partnership on tailor-made solutions in the field of pharma, food and healthy nutrition.

TO HELP YOU ACHIEVE YOUR GOALS, WE OFFER YOU THREE PROMISES YOU CAN COUNT ON.

ROUSSELOT® PROMISE 1: WORLDWIDE EXPERTISE

You will benefit from global expertise and the support of dedicated local teams to secure the best solution for you.

We always address and challenge your brief to connect the right gelatin solution to your application.

We provide support and advice throughout the entire production process, from supplying gelatin, throughout manufacturing to the finished product.

ROUSSELOT® PROMISE 2: HIGHEST STANDARDS

You can rely on world class products that meet the highest global quality and safety standards, delivered in spec and on time.

Our working system mirrors the integrity and ethic of Rousselot company with the constant objective of ensuring the highest quality and hygiene standards:

- the respect of national and international regulations, norms or quality standards, including ISO, HACCP and GMP, and working towards IFS implementation,
- the strict compliance to strong hygiene and safety programs,
- the training of our personnel and the use of continuous improvement methods,
- the numerous controls along the supply chain.

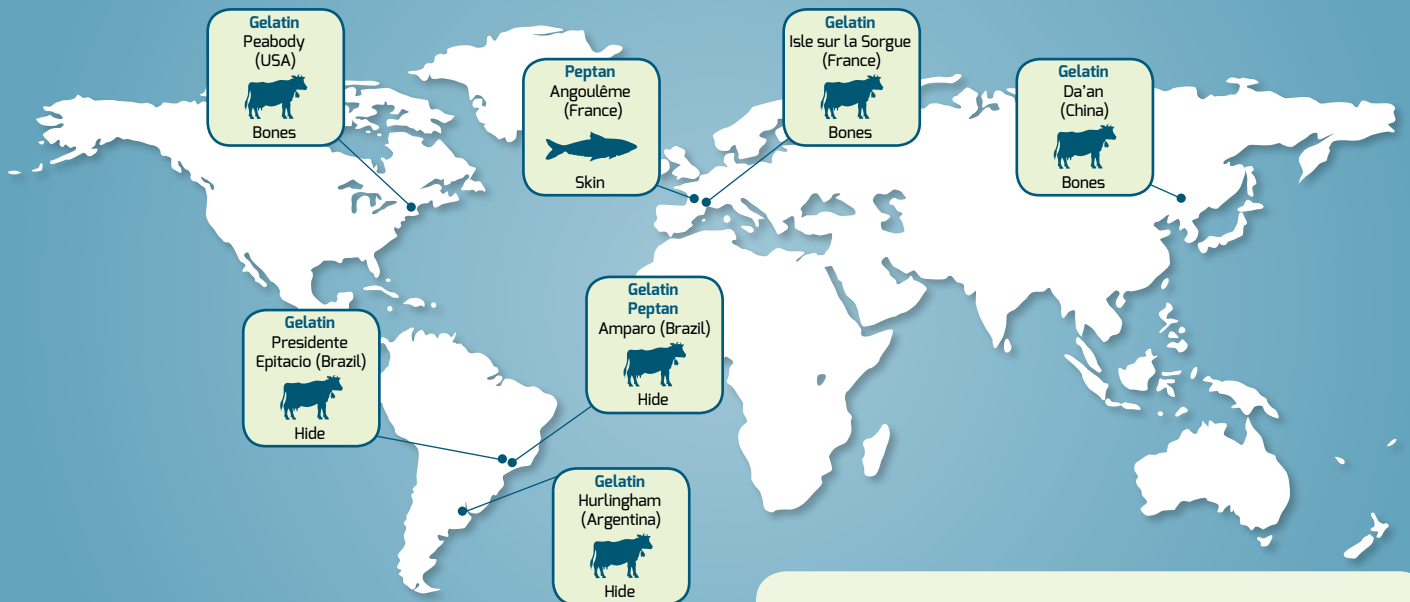

These are significant examples of our proactive behavior to anticipate and fulfill customers and consumers needs with quality Halal certified gelatins and collagen peptides and first class services.

ROUSSELOT® PROMISE 3: FULL RESPONSIBILITY

You can be certain we take full responsibility for our actions.

We hold ourselves to the highest standards, whether it be in terms of our commitment to respect the environment, or through the integrity and transparency we show you.

We proactively take steps to achieve ever greater progress in our environmental and ethical business goals. For example, we have implemented sustainable production methods to protect our planet and reduce primary energy and water consumption.

ROUSSELOT HALAL CERTIFIED PLANTS IN THE WORLD

Seven Rousselot plants produce Halal certified gelatins. In each plant a regional Halal quality control has been set up with support of a local expert. This guarantees to consumers the quality and integrity of Rousselot Halal certified gelatins.

ROUSSELOT® HALAL POLICY

To answer the needs of Muslim customers, Rousselot produces a wide variety of Halal certified gelatins which are exclusively made out of bovine or fish raw materials.

A global quality policy sets rules and procedures for all Rousselot Halal certified gelatin producing plants. All products undergo strict internal inspections. Traceability as well as manufacturing and packaging processes are at the heart of Rousselot quality objectives.

Our plants are regularly inspected by recognized Islamic bodies that grant Halal certifications to our end products after strict controls.
